

MOVIE NIGHT AT BARRINGTON CLUB

This gritty documentary covers two aspects of the life of American photographer Nan Goldin – her journey of sexual freedom, drugs and rock & roll throughout the 1970s to the 2000s and her battle against the Sackler/Purdue pharmaceutical empire, the creator of OxyContin that triggered America's opioid crisis.

2023 ACADEMY AWARD NOMINEE

BEST DOCUMENTARY FEATURE

WEDNESDAY, MAY 15, 7:00PM